Merrill Film Society
presents discussions of films

Weds June 8th, 7pm
His Girl Friday

Weds June 15th, 7pm
Mean Girls

We will start the month off with the Howard Hawks classic His Girl Friday. Starring Cary Grant and Rosalind Russell, this film shattered the unofficial Hollywood record for words-of-dialogue-per-minute. A typical script will yield about one minute per page. The script for His Girl Friday is 191 pages, but so quick were Grant and Russell with their delivery, that the running time of the film is a mere 92 minutes.

For the second part of the month we will tackle a high school comedy unlike other high school comedies: the Tina Fey scripted Mean Girls. Lindsay Lohan stars as the new kid in school who must come to terms with the rules of a high school queen bee played by Rachel McAdams. Fey and her fellow SNL alumn Tim Meadows play supporting roles as the realistic, though not ideal, adults in the school.

If you are unable to attend our screening please watch the films on your own, and join on Zoom for our post-screening discussion at 9 PM. Email Mike at mcarnes@yarmouthlibrary.org for an invitation to the meetings.
