Merrill Film Society presents discussions of films

Weds May 11th, 7pm
Brick (2005)

Weds May 25th, 7pm
Go (1999)

It is official: Merrill Film Society will be resuming in-person screenings beginning in May! Screenings start at 7 PM and take place in Lewis Hall (on the library's 3rd floor). A discussion will follow each film at 9 PM.

By popular demand our inspection of recent neo-noirs continues with Rian Johnson's Brick. The film takes place in a modern world that is soaked-through with Dashiell Hammett-inspired dialogue, plot, and characters. Third Rock From the Sun's Joseph Gordon-Levitt plays the would-be boy-detective.

1999's Go was Doug Liman's follow-up to the surprise hit Swingers, and, like Swingers, it mined a late-nineties subculture for its setting and characters. "Artfully executed druggy flights of fancy include a hallucinatory macarena in a supermarket, a mind-reading black cat and a smart visual approximation of how it feels to be on the verge of throwing up." Both films are currently available on DVD at the library.

If you are unable to attend our screening please watch the films on your own, and join on Zoom for our post-screening discussion at 9 PM. Email Mike at mcarnes@yarmouthlibrary.org for an invitation to the meetings.
