Merrill Film Society

Weds February 1st, 7pm,

The Great McGinty

In Lewis Hall

This month we will follow up Yarmouth Historical Society's screening on Jan. 11 with another Preston Sturges comedy. Join us for the screening then stay for a brief discussion after the film.

Weds February 8th, 7pm

History Center Film Event

Thanks to the good people at Kinonik, we will be watching a 16mm print of the film. Arrive early to guarantee the best seats! Check the History Center's website for detailed information. At the History Center, 118 E. Elm St.

Weds February 22nd, 7pm,

Design for Living

In Lewis Hall

This was Lubitsch's first feature-length work released post-Trouble in Paradise. Design For Living is based on the Noel Coward play of the same name and features Fredric March, Miriam Hopkins, and Gary Cooper as the three points of a love triangle. The comedy kicks off when they decide to live together while avoiding any romantic entanglements. Please note: this film came out over forty years before Three's Company aired on ABC!

Movie Book Club

Tuesday, February 14th, 7pm, discussion of the book Sturges on Sturges. Reach out to Mike if you need a copy of the book.

Camden Conference Events

Saturday February 4th, 1pm, Paper and Glue. French visual artist JR turns the camera on his own work, as he undertakes massive installation efforts on the US-Mexico border, inside the favelas of Rio de Janeiro, on the courtyard of a supermax prison, and more. Lewis Hall.

Wednesday February 15th, 7pm, Sustenance.

This feature-length documentary about food's journey around the world, exploring controversies revolving around food and its interconnectedness with justice, climate change, and sustainability. Lewis Hall.

Thursday, February 23rd, 6pm, Zoom talk with Dr. Lori Sussman.

Dr. Sussman will discuss how Mainers and Maine small businesses can stay aware of and fend off cyber threats from actors like Russia, North Korea, and Iran. Email the Library for a link for this Zoom Event.
