Merrill Film Society

Please watch the films prior to our Zoom meeting. Both of this month's movies are available to stream via Kanopy. DVDs are also available. Thanks to our Elevator's maintenance issues, the theme for the Merrill Film Society this month is "Movies That May Be More Fun Than Walking Up Multiple Flights of Stairs".

Election

We begin with the 1999 black comedy Election directed by Alexander Payne, based on the novel of the same name written by Tom Perrotta. The film focuses on a scandalous high school election and stars Matthew Broderick and Reese Witherspoon as a teacher and student, respectively. The script earned an Oscar nomination and Witherspoon's performance earned her a nomination for Best Actress at the Golden Globes.

Weds May 24th, 7pm,

Logan Lucky

Steven Soderbergh's Logan Lucky marked a triumphant un-retirement for the director when it was released in 2017. Audience members who were used to seeing Soderbergh heist movies with star-studded ensemble casts (e.g. the Oceans movies) were not disappointed by this outing. The film stars, in no particular order, Daniel Craig, Adam Driver, Katie Holmes, Hilary Swank, Channing Tatum, and more!
